NEWSLETTER MARCH 2024

ALL ABOUT BOOKS

During March, the month of books, most of our time we spent in “storyland”. In the first March week, we peeped in the school library to browse all kinds of books - from cookbooks through travel guides to fairytale books.

Lots of classes set up their mini libraries to introduce the world of books and learn how the library works! Koalas (Y1) even founded a "book hospital".

All the children got also the opportunity to bring their "home" books to kindergarten and share their favourite stories among selves. "Show & Tell" is always what we love!

Many children showcased very best selection of their favourite characters, tales and stories.

In March, we also welcomed a joyful performance by Mr. Grimm to listen to the story about sneaky Wolf and Seven little goatlings.

Some classes even produced their own mini puppet shows; and children could become real actors.

TEACHERS INQUIRY: What book would you recommend to read?

Liliia (KOL): The best book in my top is 'Quo vadis' by Polish author Henryk Sienkiewicz. It is amazing.

Majka K (HP): The book which helped me to decide to go to Asia and work as a volunteer and it changed my life: Christina Noble: Bridge Across My Sorrows.

Radka (MD): Anything by my beloved Milan Kundera 😊. I adore his wit and style of writing.

Edinka (SM): My favourite book of all time is "Life is so good". A friend of mine from New Zealand gave it to me as a present. It is more than just a South American slave memoir. It opens your eyes to simple truths: Do not hold grudges, love deeply, look at the bright side, and most importantly, be a good person.

Hela: Gabor Mate – When the body says no.

Rebeca (KOL): I love to read Looking for Alaska by Jogn Green. I've read the book probably 10 times already and I love to read it again.

And of course, we were happy to welcome our beloved moms and dads but even siblings, or grandparents, who came to read for us. We are deeply grateful for listening to soooo many interesting and exciting stories. THANK YOU!

SPECIAL FOCUS: TIME

In March, in context of stories, we specially focused on time. Time from its short-term as well as long term perspective. And thus we talked about history....

Children learned about middle age times through stories and so we could see many amazing castle showcases.

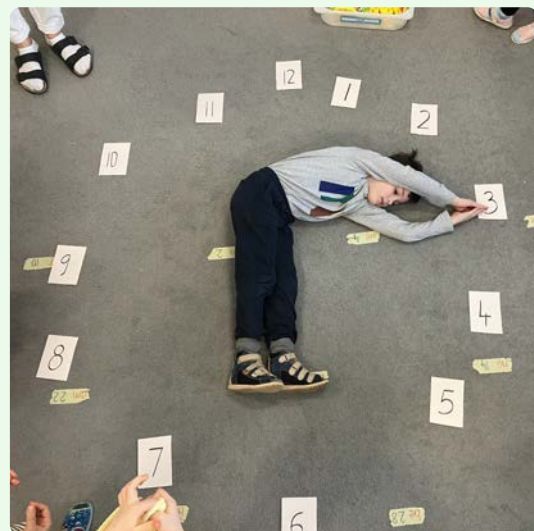

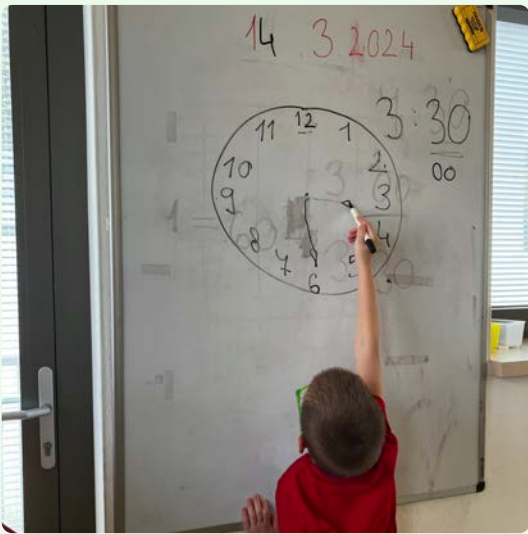

Over more, Eagles (N2) in Stare mesto organized the class medieval games to experience the life of knights and princesses.

When talking about past, children learned about various civilizations and explored the most famous great legends.

... and we talked about how the time ticks and tacks and how we can measure it.

SPRING FESTIVALS

At the end of March, we could finally feel the Spring was here 😊 and blooming air made our Easter bunny hunt and "šibačka" even more pleasant and fun.

WE SPY: Who is Easter Bunny?

NURSERY

Jakubko (Eagles SM): He has ears.

Miška (Turtles KOL): It's my brother.

Bertík (Bunnies HP): He gives me čokoládu.

Becky (Meerkats MD): He will be maybe pink or red. He is wearing a blue hat and he is jumping and playing in the house with mommy and daddy and baby with paw patrol and sticky cups.

RECEPTION

Divisha (Hedgehogs SM): Yesterday, we were going outside, there were candies and we put them in the box and then to our bags. It was the Easter bunny who did it for us.

Katja (Giraffes KOL): The bunny who hides eggs. And he hides chocolate eggs in his bag for friends.

Maggie (Giraffes KOL): But Easter bunny doesn't exist, teachers hide eggs in bushes instead of him.

Marínka (Llamas HP): He comes before Easter and is bringing chocolate to us but we need to find it and put it to the basket

Zojka (R Toucans MD): A grey bunny, playing at home with barbies. He is bringing chocolate and carrot.

YEAR 1

Mery (Arras HP): It is a real big bunny and he has a lot of candies and he hides it in the garden and we need to pick it.

Adam (Koalas KOL): Easter bunny is a bunny who brings eggs. When it is Easter time, you can eat many chocolates and candies.

Lea P. (Sharks SM): We think it is Ms. Petka or Mr. Mišo.

Sebi N (Y1 Alpacas MD): I don't know still what to think. He is trying to find his eggs, so he can have more bunnies. Oooooo so he can give chocolate to the kids. He is a silver bunny with black and white eyes. I think he just wears a tie. And he is showing where are the eggs. I like him and I saw him in the kindergarten.

SKATING COURSE

Children from Reception and Y1 classes spent one whole week on ice skates. For some it was a very first experience; for others a reminder – no matter what their level was, all did an amazing job and deserved a great praise and diploma at the end.

LATEST NEWS

In March, we also took the classroom reconstruction in Stare mesto. Thank you for patience and support.

WHAT'S NEW IN OUR SCHOOL

On 23rd March, CIS opened its doors to prospective families for next academic year. We were proud to present our outstanding school community.

Lower primary classes ran the Community Service week, so the students visited dog shelter, elder house or cleaned up neighbourhoods.

In March, as a part of the Day of European Authors project organised by the European Commission we welcomed a special guest Jana Beňová. For more info check www.cambridgeschool.eu
