NEWSLETTER MAY 2025

ON THE ROAD

1,2,3 eyes on the road! At the beginning of May, we turned our neighbourhood walk into a scavenger hunt, where kids spotted things like stop signs, speed limits, crosswalks, and more. Some with worksheets in hand, practiced noticing details and reading, others cheerfully sang. But all learning about their community in action with fun and fresh air!

COLOURS OF THE WORLD

There's no one quite like Mum—and we made sure you felt just how special you are! With lots of love and dedication, our children practiced a lot to surprise you with special performances. After that, we continued the celebration in our gardens, where “flower power” and “wellness & spa” themed workshops brought us all together for some fun, relaxation, and nice moments. We hope you enjoyed every bit of it—because you deserve it! 🌸

MORE FROM MOTHERS DAY

Leona (HP): If it was easy, everybody would do it.

Rashee (SM): Never ever stop showing compassion to yourself and to others, no matter how hard life gets.

Eva (HP): Always be your true self.

Simi (HP): “Your self-respect needs to be stronger than your feelings” and it hit hard

Miška (MD): Never give up.

Olga (SM): When I was upset about something I can't change or influence very much, she used to tell me the tale about Solomon's ring and the phrase which he found once on the inner side of the ring, when he was very upset and didn't know what to do: “Everything passes, this too shall pass”, telling me that even bad things don't last forever.

Alejandra (HP): Be kind with others you don't know the battles they are fighting inside

Táňa (HP): Use the good quality cream from young age, drink lot of water and use SPF 😊

In May, we have been talking about the world of work - various job and occupations - and we deeply "investigated" what we can become as grownups. ## BEING SMALL IS FUN

Kids' Day brought a buzz of excitement to our kindergarten! Children giggled their way through a series of exciting checkpoints, each one offering a different challenge – from jumping games and balancing acts to target toss and the bouncy castle. At every station, they proudly earned a sticker for their efforts. And at the finish line? Sweet, pink cotton candy. Sticky fingers, big smiles, and happy hearts - that's how we celebrate Kids' Day!
